1.	What are some ways that you can serve your neighbors (particularly those whose experiences are different than your own) that may possibly disadvantage you?
2.	Share some of the ways you have been uniquely built and resourced to "seek the peace and prosperity" of your immediate community.
2	When the Church took the "love your neighbor" command seriously, it uponded the Domen
3.	When the Church took the "love your neighbor" command seriously, it upended the Roman Empire — how could the contemporary Church transform our communities, and perhaps our nation, if we too committed ourselves to Jesus' command?
